

6516205029.txt

we pay for the satellite radio service and for us truckers it is nice to have the up to date weather and traffic so we can plan our route through the bigger cities so to make our deliveries on time the nab should worry more about what goes on with their own stations and leave us alone we are not breaking any rules